

Oral Histories of
HIS DIVINE GRACE
A. C. BHAKTIVEDANTA SWAMI PRABHUPADA
(Transcriptions from the Video Series)

Spiritual teacher to thousands, including George Harrison of the Beatles, A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada is known by scholars worldwide as the topmost ambassador of Vedic knowledge. In Memories, you will learn the wisdom which he imparted to his disciples and the saintly qualities which inspired so many to follow his example.

“Prabhupada said, ‘Everything is so nice in the Western countries; if they would simply stop eating the cow. Isn’t there any other kind of meat they can eat besides the cow?’”

“One time we were driving past Buckingham Palace in a taxi with Prabhupada, feeling proud that one boy who was part of the Queen’s guard had become a devotee. We said, ‘Prabhupada, one of the Queen’s personal guards has joined.’ Prabhupada said, ‘Oh, so how about the Queen?’”

“On morning walks, Prabhupada would constantly point out different things. Once he saw some bird droppings and asked, ‘What is this?’ Everyone was looking at the bird droppings and thinking, ‘Maybe Prabhupada reads tea leaf formations and sees it esoterically.’ Everyone was bewildered. Prabhupada said, ‘This tells you that the same bird is sleeping on the same branch every night. Even the bird becomes attached to his residence. So be careful.’”
